

State Technical College of Missouri accepts CORE 42 courses as transfer credit when coursework is required for a student's degree or certificate program. Students who are denied CORE 42 transfer credit may appeal the decision using the institution's internal appeal process. The CORE 42 appeal process is as follows:

1. Students who receive an initial denial must submit an appeal within 10 days to the Registrar's Office. The course information will be submitted to the Department Chair for consideration and students will be notified within 10 working days of the result.
2. If the transfer credit is denied and the student would like to further appeal the decision, a second appeal should be submitted to the Registrar's Office within 10 days of the denial. The course information will be submitted to the Vice President of Academic Affairs for review and students will be notified within 10 working days of the result.
3. If the transfer dispute is not resolved to the satisfaction of the student, a third appeal should be submitted to the Registrar's Office within 45 days. State Technical College of Missouri shall notify the Commissioner of Higher Education of its denial and the reasons for the denial. The Commissioner of Higher Education or his or her designee shall make the final determination about the dispute.
