

Medical Radiologic Technology Program

Program Mission Statement, Goals, and Student Learning Outcomes

Mission Statement: The mission of the Medical Radiologic Technology program is to prepare graduates for a career in the healthcare industry as a radiologic technologist.
Goals	Student Learning Outcome #1	Student Learning Outcome #2
Goal #1: Provide the opportunity for students to develop critical thinking &amp; problem-solving skills.	Students will adapt radiographic exams according to patient needs and conditions.	Students will use problem solving skills in the clinical setting.
Goal #2: Provide the opportunity for students to develop communication skills required for direct patient care.	Students will demonstrate effective oral communication skills.	Students will demonstrate effective written communication skills.
Goal #3: Provide the opportunity for students to develop entry-level technical skills in radiologic technology.	Students will demonstrate technical skills necessary to assume a position as a radiologic technologist.	Students will follow radiation protection protocols.
Goal #4: Provide the opportunity for students to develop basic abilities, employability skills, and an appreciation for lifelong learning.	Students will adhere to the job readiness and work ethics standards set forth by the college.	Students will understand the importance of ethics, leadership, &amp; professionalism.