

The Pink Star Foundation was founded to honor the memory of Mary Corinne “Corrie” Talken and her love for life. The Pink Star mission is to provide assistance for the elderly, those with disabilities, and the homeless community in the greater Jefferson City, MO area.

CORRIE TALKEN
PINK STAR FOUNDATION SCHOLARSHIP
$2,000
Deadline: June 3, 2022

Requirements:

- A history of work or volunteer activities that involve direct care or interaction with others such as working or volunteering with those that have special needs, working or volunteering with senior adults, working or volunteering at hospitals or schools or with the homeless
- Pursuing a degree in practical nursing, nursing, or physical therapy
- GPA requirement: Minimum 2.5
- Submit a 500-word essay on the theme:
What does the phrase “Let Go and Let God” mean to you in your life and how has your volunteer or work experience impacted you as well as those you serve?
- Provide two (2) letters of reference in support of your character and your volunteer or work experience.

Please provide the following:

Name:

Address:

Phone:

Email Address:

GPA:

What is your intended field of study and why did you select it?

Provide a description of your work or volunteer activities that involve direct care or interaction with individuals that have special needs, working or volunteering with senior adults, working or volunteering at hospitals, schools, or with the homeless. Include the name of the facility or organization.

Return by email to: bbyers62@gmail.com

or mail to:

The Pink Star Foundation

PO Box 1163

Jefferson City, MO. 65102